

RRC's Short Courses

RRC's Short Courses are designed for In-Company delivery. They can be adapted to meet the specific requirements of your organisation and can be delivered in many languages. Below is a summary of the general course content and aims. Contact us if you would like to discuss any adaptations that would benefit your organisation.

COSHH / Working with Hazardous Chemicals - Course Summary

RRC's COSHH / Working with Hazardous Chemicals Short Course provides an introduction to chemical safety, including an overview of different chemicals, how they can cause harm and how this harm can be reduced and controlled.

It is a perfect introduction for non-chemists who work with or near chemicals and those with new responsibilities involving chemicals at work.

Course Aims and Objectives

The RRC COSHH / Working with Hazardous Chemicals Short Course is designed to cover the following topics:

- Physical Forms and Hazard Classifications
- Routes into the Body
- Sources of Information
- Occupational Exposure Limits
- Controlling Exposure

On completion of the course Learners should be able to:

- Outline the main forms of hazardous substances
- Outline the key hazard categories for hazardous substances
- Outline how hazardous substances gain entry into the body
- Outline the sources and key factors of information available on hazardous substances
- Outline how occupational exposure limits are applied in the workplace
- Outline the control options

Course Duration

1 Day (4-8 Hours)

Contact Information

For further details on this course and any other training requirements, please contact us on:

Course Delivery Options

RRC's Short Courses are designed to be delivered In-Company worldwide. We also offer a choice of In-Person or Live Online delivery.

Website: www.rrc.co.uk/

Email: info@rrc.co.uk

Phone: +44(0)20 8944 3100